

Josh Greenway / Less of Josh

Real change, on camera.

I'm Josh Greenway, a creator from West Virginia. I started at 715+ pounds and I'm 232.6 pounds down so far. I post that journey, plus honest tech and gear reviews, West Virginia travel, and everyday cooking. The real version, not a polished one.

Adults running real households.

Mostly 25 to 44, men and women, strongest in West Virginia and the Mid-Atlantic with viewers across the U.S. They care about health, food, travel, and whether something is worth the money.

GEOGRAPHY

West Virginia first, reach across the U.S.

My strongest audience is in West Virginia and the Mid-Atlantic. The stories travel well beyond that.

CORE AGE

25–44

Working adults balancing health, home, work, and a household budget.

AUDIENCE MIX

Men and women, broad community.

People find me through the weight loss and stay for the food, gear, travel, and West Virginia stories.

WHAT THEY BUY

Products that earn a spot.

- Food, fitness, and everyday health
- Travel, outdoor, and regional experiences
- Practical tech and creator gear

Platform demographic breakdowns are available on request.

CONTENT

Four things I make content about.

A partnership works when it fits one of these naturally. If I'd use it anyway, I can talk about it honestly.

01 / WEIGHT LOSS & HEALTH

Working toward 500 pounds lost.

I started at 715+ lbs. I show the daily habits, meals, setbacks, and wins, not just the highlights.

Good fit: Health and wellness, mobility, apparel, home

02 / WEST VIRGINIA & TRAVEL

The West Virginia visitors miss.

Back roads, local diners, small towns, and events, from someone who grew up here.

Good fit: Tourism boards, CVBs, hospitality, attractions, events

03 / TECH & CREATOR GEAR

Gear I actually use.

Phones, cameras, audio, wearables, and smart-home devices, tested in daily life.

Good fit: Consumer electronics, camera and audio brands

04 / COOKING & EVERYDAY LIFE

Real food on a real budget.

High-protein home cooking, grocery runs, road-trip packing, and the everyday side of life at my size.

Good fit: Grocery and food brands, kitchen, lifestyle, travel gear

What brands usually book.

Send the goal, requirements, and deadline. I'll tell you which format I think will work and quote it.

01

Short-form video

TikToks, Reels, and Shorts that show me using the product, not reading a script.

- Concept and script
- 4K vertical production
- Edited for each platform
- Posted to my channels

Best for: Awareness, launches, product demos

02 MOST FLEXIBLE

UGC & paid-ad creative

Videos your team can run as ads, with hooks and calls to action you can test.

- Multiple hooks and CTAs
- Raw and edited files
- 30 days of paid usage included
- Longer usage available

Best for: Meta and TikTok ads, conversion

03

Tourism & destination stories

I visit, film, and show what the trip is actually like: the food, the people, the drive.

- On-site filming
- Multi-post series
- Photos included
- Event appearances

Best for: CVBs, tourism boards, hospitality, events

THE STORY

Why people trust the story. Not a before-and-after. A during.

Both photos shown at the same scale.

I started at 715+ pounds. I'm 232.6 pounds down and still going.

The weight loss matters, but the bigger story is getting my life back: moving easier, traveling, and doing things I couldn't do before.

I show the meals, tools, and routines that actually help, and the bad days too. That honesty is why people listen, and it's why I only promote things I'd use anyway.

"If a product fits the life I'm already living, I can talk about it without the sponsored-content voice."

Products and partners I actually use.

Current partners, affiliate links, and products I've featured. Nothing is here just because it pays.
